Korean Calligraphy Performance

“The Beautiful Hangul”

Hangul, meaning the Korean alphabet, has long been rejuvenated to a form of calligraphic art.

We invite a group of celebrated local calligraphy artists to perform live and hand out the memorable fine-art writings of each participants' name, along with Korean poetry manuscripts.

The artists Park Yoonkyu, Wooseok Cha and Kooksoo Lee will engrave the poem below:

*“The hopeful person is the hope itself.
A pathfinder is a path itself.
Only people are hope.”*

All participants are cordially welcome to appreciate this unique performance of the traditional calligraphy – it is a form that utilizes the shapes and meanings of characters to express the calligrapher's emotion and mind, the reason why it is called “the way of the word”.

- Note: All presenters and participants must be members of the Association by conference time and carry badges at all time.
- Nota: Todos los presentes y participantes han de ser miembros de la Asociación cuando se celebre la conferencia, y llevar las escarapelas contantemente durante el simposio.
